JURY FINDS ROBIN

VOLUME FIFTY THREE

NON-PAYMENT OF ALIMONY

While there were but few cases on the circuit court calendar for the Thursday noon.

The principal case to come before the court was that of the People vis George F. Robinson of Flint, charged with embezzlement. This was a case in which it was reported that Robinson was acting in the interest of J. W. Burke of Frederic in an effort to obtain a pardon for Mr. Burke who is serving a life sentence in Jackson prison for arson. This severe sentence was imposed by Judge Sharpe last January because of the fact that Burke had been convicted of felony on three other occasions, which, according to the Judge, made such a sentence mandawas alleged that Robinson was paid about $465 by Mrs. Burke, which sum it was claimed was to have been turned over to her attorney, Mr. Nichols of Lansing for attorne fees. But $50 of that sum was paid Mr. Nichola and apparently Robinson was retaining the balance. The defense, which was represented by Attorney Merle F. Nellist, Grayling, maintained that the balance of the money was being held by Robinson pending further progress parole matter, when it would be paid out as required, Robinson to retain an amount to pay his expenses in the work, such as auto service and trips to Frederic and Lansing, and of the Detroit Automobile Club, said telephone charges, etc. Prosecuting that Wexford County, with a traffic Attorney Marius L. Insley maintained that Attorney Nichols claimed only $50 for his services until such time that he had to appear before the pardoning board, when there would be an additional charge of $100 and that Robinson had no right to accept the larger amount. The latter wanted $500 but Mrs. Burke only had the amount she gave him at the time. Robinson claimed that he has always been ready to return any excess amount he might have in his hands if required to do so. Both attorneys handled their side of the trial very ably. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. This morning Judge Smith rendered a decree in favor of the Auditor General in the matter of the delinquent tax sale.

The petition of Edith F. LaMotte vs. Walter J. LaMotte for a rehear ing of their divorce case was continued to the next term of court.
In the matter of the petition of Andrew Hart to sell inchoate right of dower, a decree was granted and Axel M. Peterson was appointed genedian for Mrs. Hart who is a patient in Traverse City state hos-

WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS "DRESS

Woman's club was held Monday even-ing, April 13th, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Joseph, and was in the form The last regular meeting of the LEONARD WELCH TO IONIA FOR of a Dress-up party. As the members arrived one by one there was played; some represented school girls Dutch girls, country girls and boys, and many were dressed in April term, Judge Smith was kept dresses, aprons and caps. Grandbusy from Tuesday afternoon to mother, too, was there in cape and gay nineties.

Members responded to roll call after which a regular business meeting was held. At the conclusion of this meeting Mrs. L. D. Herbison, Vice President, on behalf of the club presented the retiring President, Mrs Emil Giegling, with the Past Presi dent's pin in appreciation of her efforts the past year.

The remainder of the evening was passed with a series of contests which were very much enjoyed. In a flower guessing contest Mrs. Roy Milnes was awarded the prize; Miss Joseph-ine Nichols received a prize for her ability to drop clothespins in a bottle, and Miss Ingeborg Hanson won a prize in a cake contest. · It is a very simple matter to do this, if the people will consider the Department of Conservation as the Department considers them, they think enough of you to build large "lookout" towers, whereby fires may be seen at a great distance, and maintain a force of men as fire wardens to subdue the fires seen by the tower-men. The only reqest we have to make is that we would like to have all to get a permit when you desire to do any burning whatever.

The idea of a "permit" is not so much to have the people ask "if they may burn" as it is to give us an idea as to the character of a fire, thus saving the expense of sending out a fire warden needlessly.

Here is the gist of the Forest Fire Law-Section 7. Act 142 P. A.-It is unlawful to burn when the ground is not snow-covered .- A violation of this act is punishable with a heavy fine, but with the cooperation of the people of this community it will be unnecessary to exact such measures at any time.

GRATITUDE

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

I have no doubt that people in gen-their friends than they usually ex-tion or gratitude or whatever you are pleased to call it for the many fa vors or courtesies which they receive from the hands of press. The Boy Scout is under obpress. ligation to do s gratuitous kind act daily. I believe it would be a fine thing to organize ociety which should have as one of its tenets that each member orally or in writing should every day give expression to some words of gratitude for kind acts received. It is quite as much a duty to acknowledge a courtesy as it is to offer one. Nothing gives me more pleasure than the unexpected gratitude of some one to whom I have shown, consciously or unconsciously, some little attention. For instance, I had in this morning's mail a letter from Dunken who lins been out of college two years or so, and has in reality almost passed out of my memory, so slight was our acquaintance. I had indirectly boo responsible for his getting a small loan in his senior year which tided him over a financial difficulty kept him from leaving college before graduation. His note was to thank me for the service I had done him and to say how much the money had meant to him. He had met the obligation before it was due with the hone that some other unfortunate might be beloed as he himself had been. I sup pose I had officially and otherwise been able to help a hundred boys out of a hole who had taken the service as a routine attention to which they were entitled, but here was one who was grateful and who had expressed his gratitude

I suppose there are reasons why more people do not do as Dunken did carelessness, ignorance, laziness, procrastination-von can name a few a good business procedure to make acknowledgements; it cements friendships, it gives the people pleasure who have shown us the attention, and often it suggests to them the obligation to do the same things.

Gratitude sincerely expressed is a lubricant which tremendously aids the smooth running of all sorts of social and business machinery.

ξ anaceacacacacacacac Ξ Flies

There are 40,000 known species of flies. While there are several common traits and resemblances, the most noticeable is that all have but two wings. Gnats, blow files, mosquitoes, and midges are the most common groups in addition to the "house fly." If one of her offspring were killed, one female house fly would produce 131 quintillion descendants in six months.

Farm Notes

Disease Kills Huge Number of

A poultry disease which destroys 2,000,000 chicks in Michigan each year can be controlled by feeding a proper ration and by disinfecting the brooder houses with an effective disinfectant, according to a statement by the poultry department of Michigan State College.

The disease, coccidiosis, usually attacks chicks in the early stages of their growth. It may affect older fowls but most of the losses are among the younger birds. The diseased fowls lack color, are inactive, and, in the flock, a few chicks die each day. Post mortem examinations disclose the characteristic injuries to the intestinal tract of the birds.

The organisms which cause disease will live in the soil for periods of two years or longer and then will infect poultry turned on the contaminated soil. The disease organsms cannot be transferred direct from one bird to another but must pass through a period of growth outside the fowl's body before they can cause disease in anther bird.

Chicks which show symptoms of lisease should immediately be fed for 10 days an all mash ration which contains at least 40 per cent of dried milk powder. The brooder house should be thoroughly cleaned every hree days and disinfected with jodine suspensoid. The disinfectant will cill only the organisms with which comes in contact.

The ration containing the skim milk powder will cure diseased birds if they retain enough vitality to eat

Unsightly or old buildings on the farm may sometimes be covered in a single season and made attractive by planting Kudzu vine. scarlet run or bean, or other climbers. Clematis caniculata is excellent for covering ences or other low objects.

Do not plant potato "runts" for seed, says the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Tests show that potaoes less than 1 ounce in weight do io give as large a yield as those veighing from 2 to 5 ounces, ever if the latter are halved or quartered and the former planted whole.

"Irrigation of Small Grain" is title of Farmers' Bulletin 1556-F which discusses various methods of irrigation, the preparation of the land for irrigation, the proper time to apply water, and the quantity of water required. This publication may be secured free of charge from the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Dairy cows should have all the salt they want. Ordinary cows in milk need about one ounce a day Heavy producers should get more Many dairymen mix salt with th grain mixture, using from 1 to 2 pounds of salt to each 100 pounds of concentrates, and also keep additional salt where the cows have ac cess to it. Salt in cake form may be kept in each feed box in the barn, or placed in convenient places in the lot or pasture. Put it in a sheltered place to prevent rain from dissolving it.

Good green range is invaluable for the poultry flock. Allow from 220 to 260 square feet of land per bird if the soil is fertile. The chicks will need more space on poor grassland. Poultrymen often keep many more fowls on sandy soil by using double yards and cultivating the land frequently. A desirable arrangementespecially where green feed can be grown throughout the year-is to have three yards of equal size for each poultry house, one in front and two in back, the rear yards extend-ing beyond the house. The birds may be alternated from yard to yard and a green crop grown in the vacant one.

What fire will do to young forest growth is shown in a case in northern Louisiana reported by the For est Service. An excellent second-growth stand of mixed shortleaf and oblolly pines and hardwoods was cut in July, taking only the larger rees. A September fire in the slash killed all the remaining trees less than 4 inches in diameter; and of the larger trees 4 to 24 inches diameter, 89 per cent of the loblolly, 69 per cent of the shortleaf, and 67

Poison Bait For Cutworms It is easy to rid the garden field of cutworms with a poisoned bran bait. CANADIAN SURGEON WINS WORLD FAME

Foot and Joint Ailments Are Treated Successfully.

Ottawa.-At Williamsburg, & tiny village six miles from Morrisburg and the St. Lawrence river, a country doctor has the world coming to his door because of the extraordinary success with which he is treating ailments of the feet and joints. By scores and hundreds a day, by tens of thousands a year, men and women are visiting him, and going away relieved or cured It is a story of unusual human in Locke, this specialist in common dis-enses such as fallen arches; a modest physician who with professional retitence declines to be interviewed. He is said to have now the largest practice in the world. He charges no pa-tient more than $1 for treatment; his follow-citizens and the noor from everywhere are treated without charge, and yet his income is reported to be $50,000 a year.

Declines Tempting Offer.

He declined an offer which would have given him a clinic in a famous turned a check for $10,000 sent him by a grateful American whom he had aided: When lodging houses in Williamsburg began to charge exorbitant rates for accommodation he told them to stop. "Make your charges reasonable or I will build a hotel of my own," he said, and he would have done so, but it proved unnecessary. The threat was

Doctor Locke was born on a farm a few miles from Williamsburg, graduated in medicine at Queen's university in Kingston, and took a post-graduate course in orthopedics at Edinburgh. He set up in practice at Williamsburg, specializing in diseases of the feet and foints, but it was not until the last few years that his fame began to spread—and then principally across

Information about the doctor's affairs has to be obtained from his friends in the village. They say that except in winter when roads are impassable he treats an average of 200 to 400 patients daily, seven days a week, and that 70 per cent of them are Americans. He begins work at eight o'clock in the marning and ends it when the last case of the day has been disposed of Patients From Everywhere. On a recent morning a visitor found about 75 automobiles in the village patients. Half of them bore American license plates and many from distant points. Patients were of all classes, some in expensive chauffeur-driven cars; some in humble ve-hicles. All had the same treatment and paid the same fee. In rare cases Doctor Locke finds it necessary to resort to surgery, but in the main he uses nothing but his strong hands in manipulations which are said to be quite painful but remarkably effective. The average treatment does not take more than two or three minutes, so that patients pass through his offic in a steady procession. If they cannot walk he goes to their cars

Doctor Locke has the reputation of possession a singular gift of silence. He is devoted to his work and apparently happy in it. He carries a tre-mendous burden with no sign of strain. He is about fifty years old; his self-imposed task is an immense one in the relief of distress and sufwould trade places with no one in this worth, speaker of the house of representatives, veteran Ohio congressman, and son-in-law of Ohlo Theodore Roosevelt, died of pneumonia at Alken, S. C., where he was spending a spring vacation.

Aiding the three physicians and staff of nurses who sought unavailingly to halt the malady was the speaker's wife, Alice Roosevelt Longworth.

Born to wealth and position on November 5, 1869, in Cincinnati, Ohio, his home ever since, Mr. Longworth, after attending Franklin school_there, was graduated in 1891 from Harvard. He spent one year in Harvard law ol, then transferred to the Cincinnati law school, graduating from that institution in 1894.

Although admitted to the bar, he did not practice to any extent. In-stend, he became interested in civic affairs and soon was immersed in politics in the city over which "Boss" Cox then held sway. Despite his persistent inclination to remain "regular" in political controversies, he declined to take dictation from the Cox or ganization and never was closely identifled with it.

A six year term as speaker culminated the service of Nicholas Long-worth in the house of representatives during thirteen congresses.

But three speakers in the history of the house occupied longer the chair to which Mr. Longworth was elevated by his Republican colleagues after twenty years' apprenticeship as a "boy" representative from Ohio, dis-tinguished service on the powerful ways and means committee and one term as majority floor leader.

He was the Republican candidate for speaker of the next house, in which that party now holds a majority of

A N IMMIGRATION case which may develop into national importance with wide consequences has arisen through the application of Miss Elia Young, Irish author and authority on ancient Celtic mythology, for admission to the United States with the intention of becoming an American

Miss Young who in recent years has lectured at Vassar, Smith and Mills colleges, made application for a visa in November, 1930, at Victoria, B. C.; where she is now living, but it was reground that she had not demonstrated satisfactorily to the American consulate that she might not become a public charge, based upon the view that Miss Young, being sixty-six years of age, without independent means and a writer, might not always be self-supporting

Not withstanding anneals from prominent educators, financiers and lawyers the State department refused to stated, what it has said without excention since the immigration act of 1924 was amended in 1927, that the American consul who passes upon ap-plications for visas is the court of first and last resort in such matters.

Miss Young was a resident of this country from October 15, 1925, until November 18, 1930. She arrived upon a visitor's permit which was repeatedly extended, upon suitable bond being posted, but left the country at Seattle on November 18, 1930, although her permit had been extended to July 1. 1031, and went to Victoria.

All of the fifteen children who survived this terrible ordeal must have been possessed of unusual endurance; but the behav-lor of one clone, of thirteen-sear-old Bryan Untiedt, was most heroic and admirable. It is worthy of all the attention it has attracted, including the invitation received by Bryan from President Hoover to visit the White House and the citation of his record to the Carnegie hero fund. But greater than any recognition that may com of the event is the reminder the example affords to humanity everywhere that, in spite of all its weakness and within it an element of the heroic
